

Erasmus+ KA3

“Teachers4Europe: Setting an Agora for Democratic Culture” (2018 - 2022)

Students’ Rhetoric Symposium

“Global Citizen: Supporting Sustainable Cities and Communities”

29 - 30 August 2022

University of Piraeus

Karaoli & Dimitriou 80 & Deligiorgi, 18534, Piraeus

Draft programme

1st Day: Monday 29 August 2022

10:00 – 10:30	Registration
10:30 – 11:00	Icebreaking
11:00	Welcoming, Room 103 Foteini Asderaki, Associate Professor, Department of International and European Studies, University of Piraeus, Academic Coordinator of T4E program, Greece
11:05 – 11:30	Guidelines on Public speaking Room 103 Manolis Polychronides, Rhetoric Trainer, Political scientist
11:30 – 12:30	Rooms 101, 102, 104, 105 - Students’ Group Meetings
11:30-12:30	Teachers Seminar: Rhetoric in Education Room 103 Valia Loutrianaki, President of the Hellenic Association for Rhetoric in Education
12:30 - 13:00	Groups Presentations and Discussion, Plenary, Room 103
13:00-14:00	Light Lunch
14:00 – 15:00	Round of Impromptu Speech, Room 103
15:00 – 15:30	Break
15:30 – 16:30	Round of Persuasive Speech, Room 102
17:00	Results Announcement, Room 103

Dinner

Learn to change
Change to learn

2nd Day: Tuesday 30 August 2022 (Day trip to Elefsina)

09:15 – 09:30	Gathering (Syntagma- Macdonalds)
09:30	Departure for Elefsina
11:00 – 13:00	“Global Citizen: Supporting Sustainable Cities and Communities” Town Hall of Elefsina
11:00 – 11:15	Argyrios Oikonomou Mayor of Elefsina
11:15 – 11:30	Foteini Asderaki , Associate Professor, Department of International & European Studies at University of Piraeus, Academic Coordinator of T4E program
11:30 – 12:00	Groups presentations
12:00 – 13:00	Panel Discussion Interaction with the audience
13:00 – 15:00	Lunch
15:00 – 17:00	Visit to the Archeological site of Elefsina
17:00	Departure for Athens - Syntagma Square