

Teachers4Europe – EURACTIV activities

Special Report

EURACTIV's journalists from the Economy Hub (Education subsection) published 5 articles focused on Education in Europe:

Main page: Citizens of tomorrow: education's role in strengthening EU democracy

- Digital education key to develop responsible citizenship, experts say
- Empathy, solidarity should guide Ukrainian refugees' education, experts say
- Citizenship education needs 'democratic schools', stakeholders say
- Education Commissioner: teaching citizenship values a 'common political responsibility'
- Citizens, MEPs call for harmonised citizenship education across the bloc

EURACTIV aimed to ensure that the content was relevant to the ongoing political environment in the EU, including the Ukrainian conflict and how these issues impact education specifically.

Final Forum: Fostering Democracy in the EU – The Role of Education: Main event page

Education is a key driver in empowering a solid European identity and protecting European democracy and values. With the rise of populism and euroscepticism across the EU, many say that the need to promote democratic culture through education and inform European citizens of their rights has never been greater. This Teachers4Europe Final Forum brought together actors from various fields:

- Victor Negrescu MEP, Co-Chair of the CULT Committee, European Parliament
- Stefan Zotti, Team Leader, Strategy and Investments, DG EAC
- Tatjana Babrauskienė, Member of the Workers' Group (Group II), European Economic and Social Committee
- Pascale Mompoint-Gaillard, CEO, Learn to Change, Change to Learn
- Jan Eichhorn, Senior Lecturer in Social Policy, University of Edinburgh
